990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, line 4a	Agros served 403 families in 9 villages and 3 countries with integrated programs in four core opportunity areas: land ownership, market-led agriculture, financial empowerment, and health & well-being. Every community realized meaningful improvements such as agricultural production increases, building community infrastructure, and increased food security in each opportunity area. Bella Vista and Piedra de Horeb, two Agros villages in Honduras, graduated into prosperous self-governance. All the families in both villages own their own homes and agricultural businesses. Everyone has access to basic services like health care, education, and financial services. Many of the families have found financial stability in a unique investment: tilapia. Other investment areas include coffee and livestock. Agros met the needs of families in Nicaragua despite political and economic turmoil that derailed the work of many other nonprofits. Under these adverse conditions, we implemented a specialized three-pronged approach. First, our programs continued uninterrupted through the crisis. While many non-Agros farming families had difficulties maintaining their production or accessing credit, families in Agros communities maintained and diversified their agribusiness production, created stronger market linkages, and continued profitable business. Second, we increased our focus on food security by creating a food bank of basic grains and teaching workshops on backyard gardens and livestock production, helping to keep families healthy during the peak of the crisis. Finally, we hosted health fairs for Agros families and their neighbors. These fairs gave families access to prescriptions, ultrasounds, bloodwork, and other medical services not otherwise available. Program service expenses include approximately $460,000 of wages and benefits paid to employees in Central America who do not receive a US Form W-2. The wages are included in Part I line 15 and Part IX line 7 and 8.

The position of Executive Vice President was added in FY17, as an officer of the corporation.
