Children's Council's Resource and Referral team helps families find child care that meets their needs through one-on-one counseling and access to a sophisticated online child care search engine. Our Subsidy Administration team helps low income families navigate complicated government financial aid programs and helps them connect to other community resources. Our Parent and Caregiver Education programs support adults in learning how to be a child's first educator and provide opportunities for parents and caregivers to develop peer support networks. Our Parent Voices chapter brings together families from all of our programs to build strong support networks and leadership skills that enable them to be advocates for an improved early care and education system in California. Dozens of families participated actively in Parent Voices. Finally, we host an annual City Kids Family Fair to help 900+ families connect to resources that support their children's early care and education.

Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Children’s Council supports families by administering child care subsidies on behalf of the California Department of Education and City & County of San Francisco. Children’s Council documents family eligibility and pays care providers based on timesheets submitted documenting hours of care. In 18/19 Children's Council continued its partnership with the San Francisco Office of Early Care and Education to implement Early Learning Scholarships to improve access to quality care for San Francisco families and increase early educator wages.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Children's Council acts as a steward of public funds for programs that strive to improve access to and the quality of child care available in San Francisco. The Children's Council serves as fiscal intermediary for First 5 San Francisco and partners with the Office of Early Care & Education to disburse Early Learning Scholarship funds to local child care programs. Children's Council also increases the supply of quality child care in San Francisco by providing training, technical assistance and leadership development for child care providers. Those new to the field can get help starting a child care business and our programs help early educators to advance their knowledge of child development, nutrition, health and safety as well as business practices and technology.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Children's Council offers a variety of training, coaching, and consultation for child care providers. Over 300 Family Child Care Centers (FCC's) received individualized coaching and training through our Family Child Care Quality Network. Our Health and Nutrition Department supported 250 FCC's in San Francisco and San Mateo counties through the USDA Child Care Food Program, providing financial reimbursement for serving, in excess of 700,000 healthy meals and snacks to the 2,500+ children in their care. More than 50% of programs improved the nutrition and physical activity practices in their child care environments by participating in the "Healthy Apple" program, which includes a self-assessment, information, training, and additional resources.

Part X, Line 2	Children's Council of San Francisco is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by Children's Council of San Francisco in their federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. Children's Council of San Francisco's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.
