Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Child Development ProgramCommunity Action Marin has provided high-quality early childhood education to the families of Marin for over 30 years. We are the largest provider of subsidized child care in the county, serving families of low income from Marin City to Novato, San Rafael to West Marin. 25% of families with children under 18 in Marin County have low enough income to qualify for subsidized child care, and we ensure that children from infancy to school-age do well by giving them a safe, caring, home-away-from-home to have fun, learn, and explore, setting them up for school and life success.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Head Start & Early Head Start We are the countys Head Start agency, operating this federally-funded program designed to ensure that children ages 0-5 from income-eligible families get high-quality childhood education and support with health, nutrition, social services, and family development. We ensure family well-being, positive parent-child relationships, and nurture parent connections to peers and community, helping families to be successful life-long learners and contributing members of the community.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Mental Health ServicesThe agencys Mental Health Services include homeless outreach, peer education and training, family partnerships, and peer-led support. We are committed to teaching, empowering, and advocating for our clients to recover in community and the agency operates the first large-scale mental health program in California run for and by mental health clients. Our family partners provide support and mentorship to youth and adults navigating the mental health system with a loved one.
