Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 1a	At times it is deemed necessary for the President and former President to travel first class due to length of travel and/or meeting preparation time required while in flight. The Seminary considers these instances as business related and therefore it is not included in taxable compensation. The Seminary occasionally reimburses for the travel of companions when there is a bonafide business purpose for the spouse to travel to a function or meeting. The Seminary provides a car allowance to select officers who are also employees of the Organization. This allowance is discretionary and is not part of an accountable plan. Accordingly, the car allowance is reported as other taxable compensation on the employee's W-2. Pursuant to Internal Revenue Code Section 107, ministerial housing allowances are provided for qualifying ministerial employees. This is not included in taxable compensation. The President, Former Provost, VP & Chief of Leadership Formation, and Professor Psychology met the qualifications for and received a ministerial housing allowance during the tax year. The Seminary pays maid service for the Former President's residence. Amount is added into his W-2 as additional compensation.
