- 1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
- 2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization.

	Yes	No

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

- 1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (i) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (ii) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (iii) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
- 2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
- 3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Supplemental Information

Part IV, D.2 (i,ii)

John Carroll High School (supported organization) is an entity that is under the direction and control of The Catholic Diocese of Palm Beach, Florida, and therefore does not have its own governing body. School officers and administrators are appointed by the Bishop of the Palm Beach Diocese. The Diocese provides financial control and review for John Carroll High School.

Because of the personal interest that Foundation Trustees have in the continuing successful operation of the High School, individual trustees have regular and continuing relationships with various officers, administrators and teachers of the high school. Currently, the President of the supporting organization is a member of the school's finance committee. The school Principal and President are invited, from time to time, either personally or through letters to meet with the Trustees to discuss the school's programs updating the Trustees on the school's progress. These meetings and or letters are reviewed by the Trustees of the supporting organization.

Part IV, D.3

This supporting organization strives to annually distribute all income to the supported organization with no controlling or directing instructions to the school's administrators. The school has advised that the funds are regularly used to provide scholarship and financial assistance for those unable to completely afford tuition.

Part V, 8

The supporting organization has an exclusive relationship with John Carroll High School since its establishment. Historically distributions to the supported organization have been used to supplement a material part of the School's scholarship effort to assist deserving students with the tuition requirements for attendance. The supporting organization, as well as the school administration, considers financial assistance to prospective students unable to afford tuition requirements to be critical in extending its educational opportunities to a broader spectrum of students.
