Part III Purpose

Understanding Disabilities, Inc. provides comprehensive disability awareness programming for elementary and middle school students to help children see beyond people's disabilities and focus on ways we are all the same inside.

Part III Line 28

Understanding Disabilities provided disability awareness programming within the school system. The programming increased awareness of all that people with disabilities can do and equipped students with tools to foster healthy interactions, strengthen the impacts of inclusion and helped foster respectful school cultures. The curriculum includes age-appropriate instruction as well as hands on activities for deeper learning § 10,000

Part III Line 29

UD helped several community events to increase awareness among parents and community members. These helped raise awareness and positive attitudes about people with disabilities and the benefits of disabilities awareness education. The events included: food allergy awareness, autism awareness, and general disability awareness surrounding disabilities through meetings, participation in Reading's town fair meetings and community events § 11,000

Part III Line 30

Understanding Disabilities is the recipient of a grant to create an innovative approach to disability awareness education. This is the fifth year of the project and saw the completion of the lessons and expert review. The curriculum is unique and potent in that it focuses on empathy and respectful relationships equal to its focus on disability awareness: messages of friendship and respect built from lesson to lesson. We equip students with tools to put their values in motion. Multimedia tools add emphasis and increase access § 14,150
