For many young adults, finishing high school and finding transportation are important achievements. Our coordinators are highly experienced, resourceful, and valuable to the youths, ages 15 to 22, who receive their assistance. We will achieve this mission by increasing the youth's quality of life, by creating a learning environment and identifying skill and resource gaps, utilizing best practice to inform our work, collaborating with our peers, identifying restorative justice needs, creating consistency in restorative justice practice, and incorporating preventative practices. We will provide collaborative and supportive services to youth and families, and support youth in becoming productive and invested members of their community. While delinquency is a violation of law, the primary concern is the physical, emotional, and social impact it has on people and the community. Restorative Justice engages victims, the youth who committed the delinquent act and community members - all those affected by the crime - in an effort to make amends and repair the harm caused. All parties, those affected, those whose actions affected them and the community, are provided meaningful opportunities to participate, shape the process, make decisions and seek resolution. Those involved are in the best position to know what it means to make things right for them in their particular situation. Victims determine their level of participation in any restorative process. Victims have the opportunity to talk about the delinquency from their perspective, identify how their needs may be best met, and plan for a safe environment.

Intensive Family Based Services: Intensive Family Based Services (IFBS) provide services to children and their families for those struggling at home and in their community. IFBS works with Department of Children and Families (DCF) to help keep families safely together through in-home, family- focused treatment services. Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2:	Easter Seals New Hampshire, Inc., Easter Seals ME, Easter Seals VT, Homemakers Health Services, Inc. and Manchester Alcoholism Rehabilitation Center are exempt from both federal and state income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Tax-exempt organizations could be required to record an obligation for income taxes as the result of a tax position historically taken on various tax exposure items including unrelated business income or tax status. In accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, assets and liabilities are established for uncertain tax positions taken or positions expected to be taken in income tax returns when such positions are judged to not meet the "more-likely-than-not" threshold, based upon the technical merits of the position. Management has evaluated tax positions taken by Easter Seals New Hampshire, Inc. and its subsidiaries on their respective filed tax returns and concluded that the organizations have maintained their tax-exempt status, do not have any significant unrelated business income, and have taken no uncertain tax positions that require adjustment to or disclosure in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Easter Seals New Hampshire, Inc. is the parent organization with oversight and responsibility for four (4) nonprofit subsidiary entities, each filing their own separate 990s: Easter Seals Maine, Inc.; Easter Seals Vermont, Inc.; Homemakers Health Services, Inc.; and Manchester Alcoholism Rehabilitation Center. It should be noted 100% of the compensation for officers and key employees is paid by Easter Seals New Hampshire (a common paymaster), and the wages are allocated to the four (4) related organizations they support.
