| Return Reference | Explanation |
|------------------|--|
| Part I, Line 2: | Kanakuk Ministries provides financial support to other Christian 501(c)(3) organizations that have exhibited a commitment to seeing God's Kingdom grow. Members of the board of directors or management have personal contact with the leadership of these organizations to gain an understanding of their vision, and to receive updates about their program accomplishments. The management of Kanakuk Ministries reviews planned support on an annual basis to determine which organizations to support and what level of support to provide. Scholarships and discounts are predetermined within the budget process each year. As registration applies the scholarships and discounts the amount allocated is reviewed weekly by the Chief Operating Officer. Once camp is complete a spot check is done to mitigate the risk of scholarships or discounts awarded to individuals that may not have met the qualifications. Also, a process of migrating to a fixed formula for the awarding of these dollars has been emphasized. |
