Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

IDRA is an independent, non-profit organization that is dedicated to strengthening public schools to work for all children. Founded on principles of ensuring equality of educational opportunity for every child. IDRA's vanguard leadership, development and research team works with others to create self-renewing schools that value and empower all children, families and communities.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code: _____) (Expenses $ 1,358,446 including grants of $ _____) (Revenue $ _____)

The Region II IDRA EAC-South is a federally funded program that IDRA operates to develop local capacity among the approximately 3,186 school districts and approximately 28,628 schools in the region and desegregate schools in the area of race, national origin, sex and religion. The program implements a coherent, research based technical assistance and training plan in Region II through strategic approaches, service delivery, and web-based and on-side approaches. Project recipients include SEAs and LEAs in Region II states which include Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and the District of Columbia.

4b (Code: _____) (Expenses $ 954,782 including grants of $ _____) (Revenue $ _____)

The development fund provides resources for mission and priority program services not supported by external funding and for development of new programs. It facilitates the dissemination of knowledge about best teaching practices in classrooms with diverse students, the creation of materials that specifically address the needs of traditionally under served students, and research on schools finance and other indicators tied to the quality of education that all students receive. On average, this fund supports educational services that have a direct impact on students and teachers. In 2019, 810 school administrators and parents were served directly. These services have a national focus with particular interest in Texas schools and the creation of equitable educational opportunities for all children.

4c (Code: _____) (Expenses $ 473,928 including grants of $ 36,644) (Revenue $ _____)

REENERGIZE - In this program, IDRA is working in partnership with Edgewood ISD, Southwest ISD, and the College of Education and Human Development at the University of Texas at San Antonio to combine expertise in preparing principals in an unprecedented way to support high-poverty, low-performing schools to improve achievement of students. Edgewood ISD and Southwest ISD in the Westside of San Antonio will build and strengthen the leadership skills of current principals and leadership teams to begin a new era of change marked by systemic, structural and instructional transformations.

4d Other program services (Describe in Schedule O.)
(Expenses $ 763,136 including grants of $ 27,947) (Revenue $ 338,728)

IDRA collaborates with schools districts described in section 170(c)(1), and educational institutions described in section 170(b)(1). Before making any grant, IDRA conducts due diligence on the grantee or institution including review of the scope of work. To ensure that the grants are used exclusively for authorized purposes, IDRA monitors the use of funds by requiring grantees or institutions to provide reports including receipts, describing their progress expenditure of funds and may request annual financial audit statements. IDRA reserves the right to verify the information contained in these reports through on-site observation of the grantee or institution which may occur at IDRA's discretion.

Part II, Line 1, Col(h)

IDRA, through schools and universities, provides assistance to student participants in the form of stipends and scholarships. Through the REENERGIZE program, IDRA helps strengthen the leadership skills of current principals and leadership teams.

Provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 3, 4a, 4b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8, and for Part II. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Part I, Line 1a

In 2018, members of IDRA's Board of Directors were permitted to bring a companion to the organization's board meetings. Five directors availed themselves of the option. The value of the companion travel is reported as compensation to these directors (each of whom received no other compensation from IDRA) on Part VII Column (D) and (E) of IDRA's 2018 Form 990. As detailed in Part VII, column (D) the value of the companion travel provided to four directors was above the $600 reporting threshold in section 6041 (a) of the Code: for these directors, IDRA reported the benefit as compensation on Form 1099.

Part I, Line 7

With regards to executive compensation, the full Board of Directors regularly reviews relevant comparability data, discusses that data and contemporaneously documents their decisions surrounding executive compensation. A long-term incentive plan has been adopted in conjunction with the compensation review whereby the Board has set targets and objectives for the President & CEO related to the organization's continued growth and success. The Board meets to discuss how those targets and objectives are being met and an appropriate compensation determination is made as to the long-term incentive plan.

Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments, 4d Other Program Service

The STAARS project is a three-year federally funded program designed to strengthen and sustain the leadership pipeline through a program of transformational professional development. Secondly, the program supports and informs a recruitment and selection strategy to select school leaders who have a disposition and skills for a turnaround campus. Thirdly, the program has as its goal to provide professional development and mentoring support to principals and turnaround team leaders. Additionally, the program supports central administration and support staff with professional development on strategies that retain effective leaders and replace ineffective leaders.

CCVYP - The Coca-Cola Valued Youth program, funded by the Coca-Cola Foundation, provides training, technical assistance, monitoring and evaluation to schools, implementing a cross-age tutoring program designed to address dropout rates.

EDCAFE - The Texas Education CAFE network is a program funded by the W.K. Kellogg Foundation. This program's purpose is to enhance the educational future of vulnerable children in Texas by creating a network of community-based family and educator groups, that help inform public education policies and practices related to implementation of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA).

FORWARD - Ready Texas Phase Forward is a mixed method study that builds on and deepens the work from our previous research project with the Greater Texas Foundation. This research project builds on our previous GTF work (1) by expanding our qualitative research into the role middle school counselors play in post-secondary access and success since HB 5 implementation throughout all geographic regions in the state and (2) deepening our research on student impact by reporting on their experiences through surveys and selective focus groups. The knowledge product component of this project provides resources for disseminating actionable data by creating an online community toolkit that provides comprehensible information and recommendations on gauging HB 5's impact on post-secondary access for all students.

Part VI, Section B, Line 11b, 990 Review Process- Description of the 990 Board of Directors review process - IDRA's annual Form 990 undergoes a number of internal and external reviews. The return is prepared by the organization's business office manager. In preparing this return, the business manager relies on the organization's audited financial statements, which are prepared by the independent outside auditors. The return is then reviewed by an independent public accounting firm, outside counsel, and the organization's President. The final version of the Form 990 is provided to each member of the Board of Directors for review and discussion before it is filed with the IRS.

Name of the organization Intercultural Development Research Association	Employer Identification number 74-1804539

Part VI, Section B, Line 12c, Conflict of Interest Policy - Description of Conflict of Interest Policy. Methods of Monitoring & Enforcement of Compliance. IDRA has an established conflict of interest policy that is applicable to all officers, directors, and employees. The organization implements, monitors, and enforces the policy through annual disclosure, whistle-blower and other periodic reporting processes. Officers, directors and senior managers must report annually any existing family or business relationships with IDRA, other employees and certain third-parties, including significant vendors, contractors, or others with material business or financial relationships with the organization. Each year, all officers, directors, and employees must acknowledge in writing that they have read and agree to comply with IDRA's conflict of interest policy. Conflict of Interest disclosure forms are completed by board members and all staff and kept as organizational records by the Executive Secretary and available annually for review by the independent auditor and the full board. Management and the Board of Directors have established mechanisms to operate, monitor and enforce the policy to ensure that no officer, director or employee with decision-making capacity can participate in deliberations or decisions involving matters in which conflicts are found to exist. In all cases these matters are subject to review, appeal and final decision by the full Board of Directors

Part VI, Section B, Line 15a, Compensation Determination - Process for determining compensation of the organization's President and key employees. In determining the compensation of its President, IDRA considers comparability data gathered from Form 990 of comparable organizations along with compensation studies conducted by independent third-party compensation consultants. This information is reviewed by the independent voting members of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. Final reviews, deliberations, and determination are contemporaneously documented and are made by all independent voting member of the Board of Directors. This process was last undertaken for the President in 2019.

Part VI Section C, Line 19, Governing Documents Availability - Process for making IDRA's governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements available to the public. Conflict of interest disclosure forms are kept as organizational records by the Executive Secretary and available annually for review by the independent auditor and the full board. IDRA makes its governing documents, Conflict of interest policy, financial data and certain tax filings (IDRA determination letter, Forms 990 and Form 1023 Application for Recognition of exemption under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code) available for inspection by the general public upon request.

Part XI, Reconciliation of Net Assets, Line 9, Other Changes in Net Assets or Fund Balances - The IDRA Retiree Welfare Benefit Plan (OPEB Trust) had a net actuarial loss of $22,042.
