Answer (a) and (b) below.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Yes | No |
| a Did substantially all of the organization's activities during the tax year directly further the exempt purposes of the supported organization(s) to which the organization was responsive? If "Yes," then in Part VI identify those supported organizations and explain how these activities directly furthered their exempt purposes, how the organization was responsive to those supported organizations, and how the organization determined that these activities constituted substantially all of its activities. |     |    |
| b Did the activities described in (a) constitute activities that, but for the organization's involvement, one or more of the organization's supported organization(s) would have been engaged in? If "Yes," explain in Part VI the reasons for the organization's position that its supported organization(s) would have engaged in these activities but for the organization's involvement.                                                                                                                              |     |    |

| Part X, Line 2   | The Foundation has received a determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service stating that it qualifies for tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been included in the financial statements. Tax-exempt organizations could be required to record an obligation for income taxes as the result of a tax position they have historically taken on various tax exposure items including unrelated business income or tax status. Under guidance issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB), assets and liabilities are established for uncertain tax positions taken or positions expected to be taken in income tax returns when such positions are judged to not meet the "more-likely-than-not" threshold, based upon the technical merits of the position. Estimated interest and penalties, if applicable, related to uncertain tax positions are included as a component of income tax expense. The Foundation has evaluated the positions taken on its filed tax returns. The Foundation has concluded no uncertain income tax positions exist at September 30, 2019 or 2018. |

| Form 990,Part VI,Section B,line 15 | An on-going internal review of salaries is conducted by Human Resources Management of GSMR using salary surveys from local and national resources to compare salaries for positions in the organization to local market data. The compensation structure is adjusted based on the results of these reviews. An independent consultant completed the Affirmative Action Plan, which included a review of salary and hiring practices to ensure nondiscrimination. The Organization's internal review of market data for staff and executive salaries includes executive salaries for organizations of comparable size, structure, operations and asset composition to GSM&amp;R. This review also is evaluated by an independent consultant on a periodic basis. Based on this comparative market data, the Chairman of the Board of GSMR and the Chairman of its Compensation Committee review the proposed CEO and other senior officer compensation packages for reasonableness and fairness. |
