Part X, Line 2:	JFF is a non-profit corporation organized under the laws of Connecticut and is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly the financial statements do not reflect a provision for income taxes. This determination has been reviewed according to guidance in a recent Financial Accounting Standards Board pronouncement related to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes. In determining the recognition of uncertain tax positions, JFF applies a more-likely-than-not recognition threshold and determines the measurement of uncertain tax positions by considering the amounts and probabilities of the outcomes that could be realized upon ultimate settlement with taxing authorities. As of September 30, 2019, JFF has no uncertain tax positions that qualify for either recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. The organization is generally subject to potential examination by taxing jurisdictions for the prior three years.
