Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 1:

Some board members are also employees of the Parent company, PathStone Corporation, and are therefore not considered independent.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

A draft copy of the return is distributed to the members of the board for comments before filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

During the new board member orientation, the policy is fully explained by the President and attorney. The board member understands that it is important to follow the policy at all times during his or her term on the board. It is made clear that if any conflict arises, that the policy is in effect and should be followed. This is also re-emphasized annually when the policy is signed on a yearly basis.

In addition to the Conflict of Interest Policy, the organization's parent Company, PathStone Corporation, has a questionnaire that all employees must fill out annually to determine whether they have a real or potential conflict of interest. If any potential conflicts are learned about through this or any other method, they are reviewed by the Executive Staff member for that division, and ultimately by the President/CEO of PathStone Corporation. The CEO of PathStone Corporation has the ultimate responsibility for determining whether or not a conflict exists and he or she, in conjunction with the Senior Vice President for Human Resources of PathStone and the Executive Staff member for that employee's division, will determine the course of action necessary.
