Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	Alaska USA Foundation support nonprofits that provide needs-based services to children, veterans and active duty members of the military and their families. To be eligible, the charitable organization must meet one of the categories mentioned and submit a request for grant. Financial reports and consolidation of the requests are submitted to the board quarterly. The Foundation board handles each funding request on its eligibility fit, the needs-based service attributes offered by the nonprofit and the impact our grant has on providing needs-based services to children, veterans and active duty members of the military and their families. The Board Packet and minutes are maintained by Executive Administration. When the grant check is sent to the nonprofit we request they provide a report on the impact the Foundation funding has had to support their needs-based programs with each or select eligibility segments (i.e. children, veterans or active duty members and their families).
