Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of the endowment fund	NHF's endowment funds are funds designated by NHF to function as endowments. These funds are intended to support comprehensive integrated health services for the advancement and well-being of the southern Rhode Island community, in furtherance of the purposes of Newport Hospital. The largest board-designated endowment held by NHF is used to support the facilities and operations of Newport Hospital. NHF's unrestricted endowment also supports the operating activities of NHCC Medical Associates, Inc., as needed, and also defrays NHF's fundraising expenses primarily incurred for services purchased from Lifespan Corporation. The largest temporarily restricted funds held by NHF, which are not included in NHF's endowment, are used in support of NH's "Beyond the Building" campaign.

Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	NHF is committed to community programs and provides support to various charitable organizations in Rhode Island and southeastern Massachusetts. Donations are made to organizations recognized by the IRS as being described in IRC Section 501(c)(3). All contributions are approved by management and are made to organizations whose missions and goals align with those of NHF. NHF also engages in philanthropic activities to support the mission and purposes of NHCC Medical Associates, Inc (NHCCMA) and Newport Hospital, related 501(c)(3) organizations. During the fiscal year ended September 30, 2019, NHF made unrestricted net asset transfers to NHCCMA of $10,075,000 to support its operating activities and $622,000 to Newport Hospital (NH) to support the construction costs of NH's Emergency Department expansion. $2,904,608 in funds raised was provided to NH in the form of restricted net asset transfers supporting certain building and equipment additions, specified clinical programs, or general operations of NH. The use of transferred funds is monitored by NH's management group to ensure that the funds are utilized for their intended purposes, as approved by the authorized signatories for each fund.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b Form 990 Review Process	The preparation and filing of the Form 990 and supporting schedules is the responsibility of the Executive Vice President & Chief Financial Officer (EVP/CFO) and Lifespan's Finance Department, with review by Lifespan's tax advisors, KPMG LLP (KPMG). The Form 990 is prepared by the accounting staff upon completion of Lifespan's annual independent audit and is reviewed by the Corporate Services Tax Compliance Manager, the Vice President of Finance - Newport Hospital, and the Vice President of Finance - Corporate Services. The Form 990 is forwarded to KPMG for further review. KPMG provides the Tax Compliance Manager with any recommended changes which are reviewed, and if agreed upon, are incorporated into the return. The draft Form 990 is then provided to the EVP/CFO for final management review. Prior to filing the return with the Internal Revenue Service, a copy of the entire form is sent to NHF's Board of Trustees in advance of its next Board meeting, at which the EVP/CFO discusses the highlights of the Form. All questions and concerns of the members of the Board are addressed by the EVP/CFO and incorporated into the Form 990 when appropriate. Once the Form 990 is complete and ready to be filed, the members of the Board are notified via email that a copy of the final version of the Form 990 is accessible through the same password-protected website portal. The EVP/CFO is authorized to file the Form 990.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	Lifespan Corporation has a Conflict of Interest Policy that is applicable to all affiliates, including NHF, and administered by Lifespan's Corporate Compliance Department as follows Each designated person subject to Lifespan's conflict of interest policy is required to provide Lifespan with an initial disclosure statement and thereafter an annual statement attesting that (i) the designated person has read and is familiar with this policy, and (ii) the designated person and, to the best of his/her knowledge, family members, have not in the past engaged in, are not presently engaging in, or plan to engage in, any activity which contravenes this policy If, at any time during the course of employment or association, a designated person has reason to believe that an existing or contemplated activity may contravene this policy, the person shall submit a full written description of the activity to the Lifespan Compliance Officer or the Office of the General Counsel to seek a determination as to whether the contemplated activity does or does not contravene this policy This requirement shall be acknowledged as part of the annual performance evaluation process If the activity in question involves either the Chief Executive Officer, the Senior Vice President and General Counsel, or a Trustee, a full written disclosure must be made to, and a determination sought from, the Chairman of the Board of Directors of Lifespan Corporation Annually, the Lifespan Compliance Officer shall review and report to the Lifespan Executive Corporate Compliance Committee and to the Lifespan Audit and Compliance Committee on the administration of this policy Failure on the part of any designated person to comply with this policy, including failure to submit in a timely fashion the conflict of interest disclosure statement, will be grounds for removal from his/her position and/or termination of his/her employment with Lifespan

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a&b	The following applies to Lifespan and all of its affiliates, including NHF EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION. Lifespan's executive compensation philosophy balances appropriate stewardship of resources and the need to be competitive in recruiting and retaining talented individuals. It incorporates market-competitive and performance-related principles, and covers the President and CEO of Lifespan as well as other officers, senior management, and key employees. Lifespan's executive compensation program complies both with law and with contemporary ethical norms, and is administered consistent with the organization's tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and the avoidance of transactions subject to intermediate sanctions under Section 4958 of the IRC. Executive compensation is also administered consistent with Lifespan's Corporate Compliance Policy on Excess Benefit Transactions. The Compensation Committee of the Lifespan Corporation Board of Directors (the Committee), comprised of disinterested Lifespan Board members, is responsible for diligent oversight of executive compensation to ensure compliance with IRC requirements. Its duties include: * Approving eligibility for participation in the executive compensation program * Approving changes in compensation for existing executive participants * Approving guidelines, such as salary ranges and contract terms, on appropriate levels of compensation for other key employees * Approving new, and modifying or terminating existing, executive compensation plans including, but not limited to, annual incentive and executive benefit plans * Approving performance objectives associated with Lifespan's annual incentive plan, including measuring points, and using audited actual performance relative to these objectives as a precondition to approving the payment of any awards under the plan * Authorizing periodic performance benchmark studies to be conducted for purposes of assessing Lifespan's performance within the healthcare industry and the degree to which total remuneration levels at Lifespan are generally commensurate with Lifespan performance relative to healthcare industry performance * Conducting an annual performance review of Lifespan's Chief Executive Officer. The Chair of the Committee conducts and documents this review, based on his/her observations and interpretation of feedback from members of the Board of Directors * Selecting and engaging qualified, independent, third-party compensation valuation consultants that the Committee charges with rendering opinions with respect to the reasonableness and comparability of compensation as well as the comparative organizations against which compensation is assessed, in accordance with relevant sections of the IRC and Lifespan's executive compensation philosophy. Lifespan's Chief Executive Officer works closely with the Committee to make recommendations on the above topics and keep the Committee informed about contemplated compensation changes.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a&b	for executives and other key employees, as well as candidates for these roles. The CEO also provides periodic updates to the Committee regarding Lifespan's performance relative to compensation-related performance objectives. The Committee's deliberations and actions are documented in minutes prepared for each meeting. PROCESS FOR DETERMINING COMPENSATION Valuation of Total Cash and Total Remuneration No less frequently than annually, the Committee receives and reviews a total cash compensation valuation of all existing executive compensation program participants prepared by its independent compensation consultant. Annually, the Committee also receives and reviews a total remuneration valuation of all existing executive compensation participants. Base Salary Actions The CEO recommends any salary adjustments for participants in the executive compensation program, using the results of the valuation study and his/her assessment of individual performance or other pertinent information, for the Committee's consideration. New Participants to Executive Compensation Program With respect to compensation offers for individuals expected to participate in the executive compensation program, certain members of the Lifespan CEO's Council work with the Committee's independent compensation consultant or rely on information previously provided by the consultant to establish a range of reasonable cash compensation within which recruitment is expected to conclude through acceptance of a reasonable compensation offer.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part XII - Line 2	While NHF did not produce an audited financial statement as of and for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2019, it was included in NHCC and Affiliates' audited combined financial statements, in which one column is used for NHF individually. The NHCC and Affiliates audited combined financial statements are included in the Lifespan Corporation (Lifespan) audited consolidated financial statements. There are no regulatory or creditor stipulations which require the preparation of a separate audited financial statement for NHF. The Lifespan Audit and Compliance Committee assumes responsibility for oversight of the audit of Lifespan's consolidated financial statements and the selection of Lifespan's independent accountant.
