Expanded Uses (EU) Team The Expanded Uses team focuses on finding new uses for corn and corn co-products developed through milling, fermentation and chemical processes. The EU team's research emphasis continues in the areas of environmentally friendly biopolymers & bioplastics, livestock nutrition, co-product enhancement and value-added green chemistry based technologies. Research in engine performance and transportation technology that will use corn-based ethanol as a biofuel is also a continued priority. Communications Numerous communications via broadcast, web-based, outdoor, special event, and print media activities are conducted each year through Minnesota's corn organizations. The communications efforts result in millions of media impressions throughout the state and region in addition to base communications projects planned and executed each year. Focus teams and committees direct special projects to communications staff when they involve a communications component. These may range from straight forward, one-time newspaper advertisements associated with an event or tradeshow, to months-long, multi-partner, coalition-based campaigns. Communications staff also oversee social media activities for the organization and act as the point of contact for journalists.

Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Producer Services (PS) Team The PS team has a broad and diverse list of organizations with whom it partners. In addition to promoting and educating people about corn and corn farming and the items necessary to conducting those activities, the PS team supports projects such as venues at the Minnesota State Fair, MN Landscape Arboretum and Minnesota Historical Society Museum. The PS team has and continues to sponsor work conducted by more than 100 community, state, regional and national groups. Matching programs that support the activities of fifty-two county corn organizations are funded through this team. Five district field managers assist our county affiliates and participate in more than 200 events.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Production Stewardship (SP) Team The SP team invests resources between 15 and 25 projects each year in the area of agronomics and genetics, improving nutrient management, cover crops & tillage systems, and water quality. The team continues long term support of a nutrient management position as well as a water quality, nutrient management, agricultural drainage education specialist at the University of Minnesota, Minnesota Agriculture Water Resources Center and Minnesota Discovery Farms. Farmer led innovation grants have produced notable success in discovery and implementation of improved nutrient management and sustainable practices.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Food & Bioenergy (FAB) Team The FAB team supports biofuels and the food industry. Historically, the team has been very involved in the build out of renewable pump infrastructure in Minnesota. The FAB team commissioned a large ethanol education and promotion effort. The team continues to be involved in several national initiatives such as U.S. Grains Council, Ag-Auto-Ethanol Alliance, Crappie Masters ethanol promotion, Green chemistry, ethanol co-product market development and the introduction of Low Carbon Octane Standard (LCOS) for high compression engines is an exciting new endeavor for the team.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Association has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in Section 501(c)(5). The Association is annually required to file a Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) with the IRS. In addition, the Association is subject to income tax on net income that is derived from business activities that are unrelated to its exempt purpose. The Association has determined it is not subject to unrelated business income tax and has not filed an Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return (Form 990-T) with the IRS. The Association believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken affecting its annual filing requirements, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. The Association would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred.
