Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
1
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.
2

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).
1

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (i) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (ii) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (iii) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
1
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization (s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
2
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.
3

990 Schedule H, Supplemental Information

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
SCHEDULE H, PART VI, LINE 5	The hospital sponsors an annual health and wellness fair every spring with free or reduced cost screenings and a variety of educational booths by hospital departments and community partners. Diabetes educators provide free screenings and education during a diabetes health event for the community held every November. In addition, the diabetes educators offer a monthly open house for anyone from the public seeking diabetes information. Free ongoing educational programs on health topics, known as Healthy Connections, are held throughout the year featuring topics such as diabetes, nutrition, heart disease and Medicare. A breast cancer education and fellowship event is held every October. In addition, the hospital participates in the annual American Cancer Society Relay for Life event by serving a free meal to all participating cancer survivors to kick off the Relay event. People Caring for People provides in-home assessments and educational resources to each family with a newborn who resides in Gage County. The home visitation program promotes positive parenting skills. A partnership of Beatrice Community Hospital, the Salvation Army and the Beatrice Community Hospital Foundation, along with service organization donations, sponsor Ready, Set, Go!, an annual back-to-school program. Some of the items given away include: a book bag, school supplies, shampoo, soap, school physicals, haircut vouchers, clothing vouchers, shoe discount coupons, health information and more. The hospital gives away bottles of water at the Gage County Fair and during Homestead Days celebration activities during the summer as a way to reduce dehydration and health-related issues experienced by community members during these hot summer outdoor activities. Hospice conducts a Grief Education and Support Program for those people in the community who have lost a loved one to death. This program is held on a quarterly basis. An educational program for first-graders is offered every spring. Area schools are invited to bring their first-graders to the hospital to become familiar with the hospital, learn about common childhood health concerns such as a broken arm, and meet doctors and nurses. In-kind and employee support was given to a variety of local healthcare-related organizations and activities, such as United Way, Beatrice Public Schools Backpack Program, Alzheimers Memory Walk, Mother to Mother Ministry, Public Health Solutions Public Health Department, Great Strides for Cystic Fibrosis, Mosaic, Blue Valley Behavioral Health, Walk to Prevent Suicide, etc. The hospital sponsors an informational radio program that covers general healthcare topics of interest to the community, such as organ donation, stress during the holidays, diabetes, heart health, etc. The hospital works with colleges and universities to serve as a training site for nursing and other health-care related jobs. The hospital has an extensive job shadowing program for high school and college students interested in healthcare. The hospital is a certified American Heart Association training site, and provides CPR and other training to local businesses and Emergency Services. Staff also participate in teaching Hands Only CPR to fifth-graders at the annual Progressive Agriculture Safety Day. The hospital invites the Red Cross Bloodmobile Bus to visit the hospital campus several times a year and encourages employees to donate blood during work hours to support the healthcare industry's ongoing need for blood supplies around the country. The hospital conducted a Community Health Needs Assessment and Action Plan.
