Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The TRANSITION COACHING program matches a caring, responsible adult volunteer with a youth who is preparing to "age out" of the foster care system. The coach helps the youth develop a transition plan as they explore options for higher education and/or employment. The goal is to lessen the risk these youth so often face: homelessness, unemployment, early parenthood, or having a criminal record. For the year ended 9/30/2019 there were 40 active matches of volunteers and youth.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Rental Assistance and Housing Options allow youth to find safe, stable housing in order to assist in meeting their educational, employment and mental health goals.o Bridge Housing is a program that provides youth with a rent-free place to live while youth participate in intensive case management, wrap around services and life skills training. Youth work towards obtaining employment and/or training to gain marketable job skills, while preparing to live independently.o Housing Options is a public/private venture between the HAY Center, the HAY Center Foundation, and the Houston Housing Authority. Youth are provided with housing vouchers provided by the Houston Housing Authority while the HAY Center Foundation provides deposits, first month's rent, utility assistance and other expenses needed for youth to move into an apartment. Youth work with staff to gain employment, education, and essential life skills. The goal is that youth will be prepared to obtain their own housing and live independently.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Youth Engagement and Workshops allow youth to have a voice at the table, interact with HAY Center staff and volunteers and learn much needed life skills. Holiday Event is a December celebration where former foster youth and their family of choice attend a fun filled event while connecting with adults outside the CPS system. Youth are often disconnected from family and have no place to celebrate special times of the year. This is where the HAY Center and staff step in to fill the void. Prom Preparation Event helps high school students in foster care get prepared for proms an evening they might not otherwise be able to afford. Matched with volunteer shoppers, youth are mentored through shopping and life skills needed when attending a special event. Hay Day is an end of summer event where youth are guided through a simulated budgeting activity with the help of volunteers. Throughout the day, youth are reminded of the resources the HAY Center offers and leave with the reinforced knowledge that the HAY Center supports their goals. Parenting Workshop is a day-long workshop where former foster youth, who are now parents, are provided with parenting tips and techniques. The children of the foster youth are treated to a fall festival while the parents attend the workshop. Peer Leadership/Peer Support is an opportunity for youth to come together to learn about a variety of topics such as auto purchasing, car repair, tenant rights, civil rights and an opportunity to provide staff with feedback regarding programming and services.

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
1
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.
2

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).
1

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (i) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (ii) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (iii) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
1
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization (s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
2
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.
3

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 4d: Other Program Services Description	OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 4: Youth Engagement and Workshops allow youth to have a voice at the table, interact with HAY Center staff and volunteers and learn much needed life skills. Holiday Event is a December celebration where former foster youth and their family of choice attend a fun filled event while connecting with adults outside the CPS system. Youth are often disconnected from family and have no place to celebrate special times of the year. This is where the HAY Center and staff step in to fill the void. Prom Preparation Event helps high school students in foster care get prepared for proms an evening they might not otherwise be able to afford. Matched with volunteer shoppers, youth are mentored through shopping and life skills needed when attending a special event. Hay Day is an end of summer event where youth are guided through a simulated budgeting activity with the help of volunteers. Throughout the day, youth are reminded of the resources the HAY Center offers and leave with the reinforced knowledge that the HAY Center supports their goals. Parenting Workshop is a day-long workshop where former foster youth, who are now parents, are provided with parenting tips and techniques. The children of the foster youth are treated to a fall festival while the parents attend the workshop. Peer Leadership/Peer Support is an opportunity for youth to come together to learn about a variety of topics such as auto purchasing, car repair, tenant rights, civil rights and an opportunity to provide staff with feedback regarding programming and services.
