Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Prevention Services We provide funding and program support to local community organizations We use established evidence-based program models that can be implemented with fidelity so that we can measure our effectiveness and better ensure results We focus on two-generation strategies that work to build stronger families and keep children safe 4,502 parents, caregivers, and children were served 53 Community Organizations were funded

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Research and Evaluation We collect and study child, family, and community data so that we know how and where to target prevention efforts. Understanding child well-being trends is important because the insights gained enable us to focus on partnerships, policies, and programs that will lead to the greatest improvements. We also collect and study prevention program data so that we know what's effective and what's not. Understanding program data, including financial and process and outcome data, allows us to evaluate our prevention efforts to achieve our mission.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Education and Professional Development We give child-serving professionals the tools they need to best work with families in preventing child abuse and neglect. We offer a diverse set of learning opportunities from statewide conferences to specialized sessions on focused curriculum. We completed 200 trainings throughout the state to 6,336 participants, the majority of which were community prevention trainings, working to support the prevention of child abuse and neglect.
