| Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Conflict of interest policy | The Kentucky Chamber Foundation annually surveys its board of directors and other key persons to determine potential conflicts of interest. A questionnaire is distributed annually that includes a list of key persons and a detailed description of what might constitute a conflict of interest with the organization. The response to the questionnaires are reviewed by the board of directors. On matters where the conflict applies, the board member holding the conflict will be prevented from deliberating and voting on decisions of the transaction or arrangement. |

| Form 990,Part VI, Line15a Processto establishcompensationof topmanagementofficial | Compensation for the organization's officers is paid by Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, Inc (KCC), a related tax-exempt organization. The CEO's performance and compensation are reviewed at least once each year by KCC's performance review and compensation committee (established in the chamber's bylaws) using comparable chamber of commerce and state association executive compensation data. The performance review and compensation committee reports its review process to KCC's executive committee. The CEO reports to the committee on his/her process for review of other executive salaries. The committee reports its review process to the executive committee. The reports for the above are included in the executive committee minutes which are distributed to the full board of directors at the regular meeting. |
