Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 3	American Society for Parenteral and Enteral Nutrition (ASPEN), a related organization, determines compensation of officers. The Organization utilizes a written employment contract and approval by the Board/Compensation Committee when determining Chief Executive Officer (CEO) compensation. As part of the process, the Executive Committee conducts an annual review of the CEO performance, reviews compensation information from The American Society of Association Executives and CEO Update not less than every three years, factoring that information into their decision. This process occurs annually. Utilizing salary comparability data from such sources as the American Society for Association Executives, the CEO reviews and determines the Chief Operating Officer's salary. This process occurs annually.
