Part IV, Line (1), Columns (b) and (c): Tony Hedrick was a founding member of Adventive Cross Cultural Initiatives ("ACCI") in the US and in Canada. ACCI-US and ACCI-Canada are separate organizations, each with an independent board of directors. Tony served on both boards until October 2007, and he served as Executive Director and as a missionary with both organizations until October 2007. Tony currently serves as an ACCI-US contracted missionary, promoting and working with ACCI ministry projects in Canada, US, England, Norway, Italy and Slovenia. ACCI-US pays Tony for his contracted services based on donations for related projects. During 2018 Tony received $30,032.76 for his work. (All ACCI contracted missionaries, including Tony, receive monthly payments based on project donations for that month.)

Part IV, Line (2) Columns b,c, and d: As noted above and in various other parts of the Form 990 and its Schedules ACCI-US and ACCI-Canada share a common history, and cooperate together in many ways, including combined ministry objectives, projects and cooperative planning and fellowship. As noted elsewhere, the two organizations financially support each others' ministries. Tony Hedrick was a founding member of both organizations and served on both boards as Executive Director of both organizations. Ann Hinrichs became ACCI-US Director in August 2017 and Lauren Roth, ACCI-Canada now serves as International Director in 2017. Each organizations' relationship with the other is outlined in their affiliate ministries contract, and that contract also governs transactions between the two organizations. Generally, the transactions occur monthly, and involve the transfer of funds between the two organizations for ministry project support. The organizations use a book-recognition system, where donations between the two are offset, with the organization donating the greater amount actually sending the difference to the other organization, but with both the organizations recording the total transfers on their books. All transactions, per the contract, must be for ministry purposes and must be reported to each organizations respective boards.
