n 1957, Albert G. McCarthy, Jr., his wife Kathleen and their children, A. G. McCarthy III and Kathleen Denise Hattler, established a private charitable foundation dedicated to the missionary spirit of the Catholic Church.

Since that time, the Loyola Foundation has donated over forty million dollars to approximately five thousand recipients worldwide. These grants have funded purchases of vehicles, equipment, computers and other educational materials. In addition, the Foundation has assisted with the construction of wells, solar power facilities, schools, convents, churches and community halls.

By helping Overseas Roman Catholic Missionary Activities, the Foundation endeavors to foster the social and evangelical work of Catholicism outside of the continental United States

The goals of the Loyola Foundation remain international. In this it differs from most other United States foundations which were established for the primary purpose of assisting American charities

The Foundation gives priority to requests which are self-sustaining upon completion and which demonstrate self help and local support. For large projects in excess of $50,000, applications are not accepted until at least 75% of the total funds needed have been secured.

The Foundation does not accept requests for operating budgets, scholarships, tuition, endowments, or any sort of continuing subsidies. In addition, no grants are made for emergencies or to individuals

The average grant is $10,000 Applications should be submitted with the attached form, which must be completely filled out. A written endorsement of the project by the Ordinary of the area where the project is located must be submitted with the application

Applications to the Foundation are considered in June and December of each year. Completed requests must be received no later than March 31 and September 30 for consideration at those meetings. Due to the high volume of applications, those received towards the deadline dates might be postponed until the next funding cycle. If the application requires matching funds, documentation regarding these other sources of support must be submitted with the application.

Please note that only one request in a diocesan area is accepted for consideration in a given year. Applications are held for a period of no more than one year from time of submission. Individual grant recipients must wait a minimum of three years before reapplying to the Loyola Foundation
