Part I, Line 2	In the past, the board would review applications each July to determine if the charity qualified for funding and if the organization fit with our giving decisions. Since 2007, the board has focused on a select core group of charities who are qualified (verified they are 501 C 3 organizations, certificate required with each) and are the closest fit to our mission statement. Mission Statement: To promote sportfishing throughout Carteret County and the state of North Carolina. To promote conservation among sportfishermen. To raise money for charities and worthy community projects. To preserve maritime culture and heritage. To promote marine education. The dollar amount is determined based on their needs and the tournament budget. The charity funds are donated after the tournaments final bookkeeping is complete and the budget has been met. The Big Rock Tournament also donates half of each entry fee from the one-day Keli Wagner Lady Angler Tournament to the local RAAB Oncology Clinic. That amount varies based on entries to the tournament.
