Activity One

In 2019, the focus of the Atlantic Charitable Fund (ACF) continued to be service and support of homeless, domestic violence and substance abuse non profit entities. This was accomplished through: (1) direct grants of support; (2) group training of homeless and domestic violence shelter operators in Maine on the subjects of mental health, trauma and substance abuse issues; and (3) direct consultation to individual non-profits on improving their operation, policies, efficiencies and staff training. This effort has provided valuable and otherwise unavailable training and support to these agencies and their personnel.
