Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2 - Grantmakers Explanation For Monitoring Use of Funds Outside US	Project Approval Process:1.Review the formal standard grant request sent to trust office2.Internal three person committee assigned to review the request and make a recommendation to board of trustees with a consensus opinion3.Trustees look at the recommendation and then based on merit and availability of funds now or at future date may decide to approve full or partial grant4.Recipient organization is informed in-person or through electronic means about the grant approval information5.Also point to be noted that trustee(s) at times may put forward an internal request to work with a known external trust that may be engaged in supporting humanitarian projects in-line with Prasanthi Trust. However, review and oversight process is same as documented below Project Funds:1.After the project is sanctioned by trustees, 2 or 3 member committee is identified to oversee the project execution. Making sure at least one or two members have time and where withal to travel and oversee the project at their own expense2.Funds are sent via check or electronically in a phased manner to the recipient organization Project Oversight:1.If the project involves Capital Funding the oversight is much easier which involves reviewing purchased capital good invoices. Visits to see capital goods have been installed and commissioned. Also documenting via pictures and reports completion report on the project2.If the project involves humanitarian service and or-on-going sustainment such as an educational institution or hospital providing free healthcare to deserving needy people then one or more people from the oversight committee group have harder work to make a few visits to place of service and verify that Loving dedicated service is being rendered on an on-going basis and make sure funds are being deployed appropriately. Followed by a written report of satisfactory completion. Though we dont control the complete process and/or outcome, the report helps the trustees to weigh-in when considering the future similar grant requests
