Part I Summary

Activities & Governance

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities:
The Foundation provides inspiration for children struggling with financial hardship, anxiety, depression and suicidal ideation by giving them the ultimate environment to survive then thrive at the highest levels through mental health and social services. Programs aim at risk youth with everything they need to be physically, emotionally and mentally healthy in a fun and inspirational way, on line and in person. The Foundation's goal is to revolutionize education by providing an ideal model of youth development in undeserved communities.
