01. Organizational document changes (Part VI, line 4)

We added the following sentence in the States' 4-H Bylaws Section 2. Term of Office: "In case the spot of the three-year and/or two-year directors cannot be filled, the term can be extended up to one year by the majority vote of the Board."

02. Form 990 governing body review (Part VI, line 11)

An electronic copy of the Form 990 will be sent to all board members for their review and approval prior to filing with the IRS.

03. Conflict of interest policy compliance (Part VI, line 12c)

The conflict of interest policy is signed by all board members at the beginning of their board term. If any individuals have a potential conflict of interest, they are required to disclose it. The board of directors will make the determination regarding whether or not a conflict actually exists. If there is a conflict of interest, the individual in question is required to remove himself/herself from any discussion and vote upon the matter.

04. CEO, executive director, top management comp (Part VI, line 15a)

The last compensation review was on October 10, 2019. The Executive Board of Directors reviewed the 2017 GuideStar Compensation Report and approved the salary for the President & CEO for 2019, and approved retroactively to January 1, 2019.

05. Governing documents, etc, available to public (Part VI, line 19)

The organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements available upon request.

06. Significant program services not listed on prior year return (Part III, line 2)

In 2019, States' 4-H was awarded a subgrant for the Kennedy-Lugar Youth Exchange and Study (YES) Program sponsored by the U.S. Department of State. YES encourages long-lasting peace and mutual understanding between the United States and countries with significant Muslim populations. YES provides opportunities for high school students to spend a year in the US, living with a volunteer host family and attending an American high school.

07. Part III, response or note to any other line in Part III

Part III, Line 4a continued: For Americans going abroad, students participate in an individual homestay where they were immersed in the everyday life and culture of their host country. For the program fees it collects, States' 4-H provides selection, orientation, international travel, chaperone escort, insurance, on-program support, in-country cost, and liaison with receiving organization during the program. States' 4-H sent 80 U.S. youth in 2019 for summer program and school year program. Following program completion, 96% of participants indicated that they had improved the cross-cultural competencies. On average, participant cultural knowledge of their travel country increased by 42% following participation in the States' 4-H Outbound Program. States' 4-H also hosts youth from other countries. In hosting, it collects a program fee from the sending organization and provides services such as finding host families, finding schools (for school year program), providing orientation, arranging ground transportation, and offering counseling support during the program. For summer hosting program in 2019, States' 4-H hosted 632 youth across 23 states. These short-term exchanges are extremely impactful for American youth participants. After being a host to an exchange visitor, 86% of US youth participants felt more connected to the world as well as a greater desire to travel and experience a different culture. 92% of participating families reported they developed skills in adapting to cultural differences and 9 in 10 families felt they improved their cross-cultural communication skills. For School year program, States' 4-H worked with 98
