Funding to such patients is provided predominantly for hotels, food, parking or travel expenses, and is provided to the general public irrespective of race, gender, age, ethnicity, geographical origin or religious preference. Amou nts are allocated according to the patient's needs assessed in conjunction with the patien t's hospital social worker. The Organization maintains a continuous program for solicitati on of funds from the general public through the organization's website, social media sites and other forms of outreach to the general public. In recent years, the Organization has received significant grants for patient funding from two donors that have been "disqualifi ed" due to size so our public support percentage has been reduced, but these donors do not direct the Organization's activities or change our objective of serving the general publi c.
