Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

See Schedule O Greenhouse Scholars is a diverse community of leaders working together to create positive, generational change in low income communities by creating the ability for everyone to live the life of their choosing. Education unlocks the potential of young leaders, their families, and entire communities. We have a community of thousands of leaders who are taking action to create change around the world. Greenhouse Scholars works side by side with our Scholars to initiate change from within the community. We illuminate a self-empowering path forward by educating inspiring role models from resource-starved communities. We leverage the collective power, capabilities, and ideas of leaders from all walks of life to create critical solutions. We are creating and executing solutions that will literally change generations. We are uniting people from all walks of life. We are taking action. We are fueling the power of opportunity, choice, and belief.

Name: Greenhouse Scholars

Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

SEE SCHEDULE OF Financial Support Program There are two avenues for Scholars to receive financial Support: 1) Flex Funding: Scholars submit proposals to pursue study abroad, thesis research, living costs during summer internships, volunteer service programs, supplemental coursework, graduate school test preparation, and more. These opportunities are fundamental to the full college experience, but they are additional to the cost of tuition and often not feasible for low-income students. This highly customized resource encourages Scholars' leadership potential, community involvement, professional development, and relentless spirit. Grants are made in amounts up to $2,000 per project and are reviewed on a competitive basis throughout the year. 2) Tuition Scholarship: Each Greenhouse Scholar receives up to $5,000 per academic year, based on their Federal Application For Student Aid (FAFSA), financial aid award package, outside scholarships, and university cost of attendance. Scholars must meet program accountability requirements to qualify, and payment is made directly to the university.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

The Summer Symposium brings all the Scholars together for workshops, speakers, panel discussions, and group projects. This annual, four day conference allows Scholars to interact with one another and with renowned professional and academic leaders from all over the world. The highly participatory event focuses on values-based leadership training.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Impact is a strategic framework to enable each Scholar to elevate their impact and take action, both individually and as a group, to positively change and inspire younger generations of students from low-income communities. Impact consists of 3 different approaches: 1) Individual Impact Plans, 2) Community Impact Initiative, and 3) Presentation at low-income middle and high schools.
