Part I Summary

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities:
The Midwest Access Project MAP envisions a society in which every person has access to patient-centered, quality reproductive health care within their community. Our mission is to improve access to reproductive healthcare by training providers in comprehensive sexual and reproductive health including contraception, pregnancy options counseling, miscarriage, and abortion. As a Midwestern hub for training and advocacy, MAP fills gaps in medical education and clinical training, and reduces barriers to care.

Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

1 Individual Clinical Training - The clinical training program's strategic direction is to train a diverse array of health care professionals who are highly motivated to provide comprehensive reproductive health care in their future practice to under-served patient populations, but who lack access to the clinical training to do so. 2 Provider & Community Education - Offers lectures and workshops on reproductive and sexual healthcare, as well as presentations on the importance of training healthcare professionals to provide reproductive health services. MAP educates medical residents and students, advanced practice clinicians, health care providers and community groups. Lectures and workshops are presented at medical schools, nursing schools, clinical sites, national and local conferences, and local community events. 3 Regional Collaboration - MAP strengthens relationships with organizations and allies in the field to grow opportunities for training in the Midwest and to build supportive community networks for providers. Through relationship building we share information and best practices, support providers in a challenging culture, create networking opportunities for current and future providers, and help to expand our training sites, thereby enabling more clinical training opportunities. MAP's network advocates for greater access to reproductive health care to professional organizations, accrediting bodies, legislators, and media outlets.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X : FIN48 Footnote	The Organization is exempt from Federal and State income taxes under Section 501c3 of the Internal Revenue Code, therefore, the financial statements do not include a provision for income taxes. The Organization reviews income tax positions taken or expected to be taken in income tax returns to determine if there are any income tax uncertainties. This includes positions that the entity is exempt from income taxes or not subject to income taxes on unrelated business income. The Organization recognizes tax benefits from uncertain tax positions only if it is more likely than not that the tax positions will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the positions. The Organization has identified no significant income tax uncertainties. The Organization files information returns as a tax-exempt organization. Should that status be challenged in the future, all years since inception could be subject to review by the IRS.
