Form 990 Part III Line 1: Bless An Orphan was formed to meet the needs of orphans, abandoned, abused, at risk children, and those rescued from human trafficking. Our program focuses on sustainability and long term goals for lasting change. We believe it is important to address the physical, emotional, social, educational, psychological, and spiritual needs of the child so that they may fully recover from trauma. We work with psychologists, therapists, counselors, and other healthcare providers to help meet these needs. In some regions we manage safe homes for children rescued from human trafficking and children's homes for those who have been orphaned, abandoned, or legally removed from abusive homes. Our mission also reaches into impoverished communities through our Matthew 25 Feeding Program, where we provide nutritional support to children, families, elderly, and homeless individuals. We also conduct medical missions to assist the poor or those with no access to healthcare. Part of our mission includes providing educational resources to underprivileged children whose families cannot afford materials or school fees. In some cases we have provided housing support to struggling families, homeless individuals, or single mothers and their children.
