Part V, line 4

The Council's charitable account is to be maintained as a quasi-endowment. The intention is to operate the charitable account as if it were an endowment by maintaining the long-term value of the initial investment, or corpus.

The primary objective for the charitable account is to achieve reasonable long-term capital appreciation, above inflation, with moderate risk.

This is anticipated to provide an annual distribution rate of 4% of the average trailing net assets. Such distributions shall be made to the Council to be added to a charitable account. It is the intention of the Council to use such distributions to fund charitable grants and/or charitable activities.
