Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2:	Covenant and its member organizations are considered not-for-profit corporations as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and are exempt from federal income taxes on related income pursuant to Section 501(a) of the Code, except as noted below. Tax-exempt organizations could be required to record an obligation for income taxes as the result of a tax position they have historically taken on various tax exposure items including unrelated business income or tax status. Under guidance issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board, assets and liabilities are established for uncertain tax positions taken or positions expected to be taken in income tax returns when such positions are judged to not meet the "more-likely-than-not" threshold, based upon the technical merits of the position. Estimated interest and penalties, if applicable, related to uncertain tax positions are included as a component of income tax expense. The System has evaluated the position taken on its filed tax returns. The System has concluded no uncertain income tax positions exist at December 31, 2019.

Part III Supplemental Information

Provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 3, 4a, 4b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8, and for Part II. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 3	Any compensation paid to the trustees, directors, officers or key employees of the Organization is subject to the oversight and decisions of Covenant Health, a related tax-exempt organization. Every two-to-three years the Compensation Committee of the Covenant Health Board of Directors engages an external consultant to provide competitive market data from various survey sources, which is then used to develop recommendations for changes to the compensation program. Since 2003, the Compensation Committee has engaged a human resources consultant to conduct this analysis. Objectives of the analysis are to assess the compositeness of the total cash compensation levels of the senior leadership team, develop market based competitive salary ranges for all executive positions, and ensure that the annual incentive opportunities, if there are any, are competitive and reasonable.
Part I, Line 4b	Covenant Health, Inc., a related organization and sole member of Fanny Allen Corporation, maintains a supplemental executive retirement program for certain executives under which the related organization makes a contribution for the benefit of its executive that is intended to provide a specified level of retirement benefits at a retirement age that is commensurate with the retirement benefits provided to other executives in comparable positions with similarly situated organizations. Amounts contributed to the program are held for the benefit of the executive until he or she reaches age 60, at which time the benefits are released to the executive. The full amount is taxable to the executive when so paid, and is included in the executive's reportable compensation. Mr. Stephen Grubbs participated in this program during the tax year and $19,000 has been included in Schedule J, Part II, Column B(iii) relative to this program.
