Explanation: All Officers and Directors who managed the organization and were responsible for activities in Tax Year 2019 are no longer Officers, Directors, or serving any role within the organization, and did not complete the 2019 Form 990 accurately before their departure in October 2020. A complete new Board of Directors was seated in October 2020, and the new Board selected new Officers. The new Board of Directors was not provided with complete accounting records, bank statements, or credit card statements, and spent several months in 2021 reconstructing Tax Year 2019 income, expenses, assets, and liabilities. This change in leadership has caused a one-time delay in completing our filings, but we have new leadership and systems in place that will ensure accurate filing of Form 990 in future years starting tax year 2021.
