Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Consulting and Training. This program offers in-person and remote training and support to congregations and other with older religious properties. Our signature program, New Dollars/New Partners, has helped leader from over 1,000 sacred places build their capacity, form new community partnerships, and raise new funds from outside their congregations. In addition, we also provide individualized support services, working one-on-one with congregations to measure their community impact, facilitate space sharing, raise funds, deepen engagement with their communities, and more.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Research. We have been a research leader, defining and energizing the study of the public value of religious assets with our 1999 landmark study, Sacred Places at Risk: New Evidence on How Endangered Older Churches and Synagogues Serve Communities, and our 2016 study, The Economic Halo Effect of Sacred Places. Because of these studies, which documented dozens of ways sacred places contribute to their communities and local economies, these programs enable congregations from around the country to be able to advocate for increased community support.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Grants. This program provides capital grants to sacred places, which have been leveraged by recipients to secure additional funding. In 2016, we established the National Fund for Sacred Places with collaboration with the National Trust for Historic Preservation. The National Fund for Sacred Places is a grant-making and capacity-building program to help significant historic sacred places successfully complete major capital projects and to bring great attention to the role of sacred places in America.
