Return Reference	Explanation
Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	Grants paid to producing organizations and theatre production expenditures/expenses include grants made to producing organizations to provide programs at Miller Outdoor Theatre. To be eligible to receive such grants, producing organizations must produce programs and submit reports of allowable costs. Upon completion of a production, a final production expense report must be submitted that documents all of the production expenses. The entire report is scrutinized by MTAB for overall reasonableness.
