Part I, Line 2:	Grant recipients enter into contracts with the Center. This contract includes specific requirements that the recipient must adhere to, including providing quarterly program and financial reports and as needed reports to the Center for data collection and process tracking. The agreement also states that the recipient agrees to expend funds only for allowable project costs and to expend funds in accordance with the approved budget. The contract also includes a copy of the program objectives. These contract items allow the Center to monitor their subrecipients use of grant funds and ensure compliance with applicable grant requirements. The Center employs project managers that are actively involved in administration of the grant programs. The Center's program managers conduct initial meetings with grant recipients to communicate applicable compliance requirements and discussions on the goals and objectives of the program. Regular follow up with grant recipients is done by program managers to ensure adherence with contracts and compliance with applicable grant requirements.
