TY 2019 Reasonable Cause ExplanationName: LAMPLIGHT ARTISTSEIN: 25-1806070Software ID: 19009572Software Version: v1.00

Explanation: Covid 19 caused quite a bit of chaos during one of our most critical phases in summer program preparation - the selection and training of summer staff, registration of participants for 7 camps in 2 states, and communication with church leadership. It was during this time that we also lost our bookkeeper because of the virus. With so much confusion, we obviously dropped the ball to file for an extension - which we normally do - and which I thought we had. Having assumed we had filed the extension I turned my attention to other pressing matters. April and May were consumed with working with churches to reschedule as best we could. By the middle of May we realized we would have to cancel all of our camps, release our summer staff, and reimburse all registration fees and advance funds. I was aware of the November extension deadline and made plans to have the 990 completed to submit. At the end of October, however, my wife's mother entered hospice care and we traveled by car south (2 ten-hour days of travel) to spend time with her. We spent several weeks away from home, sitting with her mother at a hospice care facility, preparing and attending the funeral, spending time with family, and then heading home. It was after we returned that I picked up the mail and found a letter informing me we had not filed the 990 and that we needed to do so immediately. I was shocked when I realized what had happened. I was finally able to prepare the filing over these last few days, and submitted it as soon as I was able. With the collapse of our work this summer and the uncertainty of its future, our non-profit is in a pretty vulnerable position financially. I therefore respectfully request a waiver for penalties that would begin on the original due date. I do understand that I am delinquent on the current extended deadline (Nov 16) and do not request those fees to be removed. I would be grateful for any consideration of my request.
