Project Jubilee is one of the programs that aims to help disadvantaged children grow and learn. Whether becoming proficient in their current studies, learning English or gaining a passion for education, we partner with their school and teachers and provide resources. This program has been centered at the child refuge center school on the Island of Ometepe in Nicaragua and has seen great results. Over time, as the school has grown, children from the surrounding town have also been able to take advantage of the program.
