Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

276,185 square feet constructed serving 340,214 people. Helped build resiliency in underserved communities by: designing and installing solar arrays/systems to two schools and resource center; designing and constructing a maternal health center; renovating 4 rural health care facilities; constructing an outpatient department; renovating and improving offices in a public health services building; designing and constructing a rural health center; building a primary care specialized health center; constructing a rural health clinic.Economic impact: 98% of projects delivered on budget. 93% of projects delivered on schedule. 99% locally sourced materials. 1,597 local laborers employed, including 83 in-country architects. Over $5 million injected into local economies in salaries and material purchases.Health iniatives undertaken demonstrate that a better standard of healthcare is possible and affordable, even in the world’s most neglected communities. Partners have developed a primary healthcare approach that works- delivering improved health outcomes while strengthening national healthcare systems. They work in partnership with governments to scale this approach. Construction for Change connects with local partners and NGOs to build and renovate health facilities. We seek to optimize health care access to residents of vulnerable communities
