Part I Line 2	Washington Progress Fund collects a grant application and conducts a site visit to determine mission and strategy alignment of grantees. Once approved, grantees complete a grant contract confirming terms of agreement and provide proof of non-profit status, prior to grant disbursement. A record of the amounts of grants given each year is kept both in financial documents and in a supplemental database. The organizations by-laws include information about the grant process. Washington Progress Fund requires an in-depth written report annually that outlines all progress made on objectives outlined in the original grant proposal. A site visit is also conducted with grantee organizations at least every other year.
