Seminars

This program organized two seminars in East Asia to provide Chinese pastors with training in Biblical theology and Christian ministry by using world-renowned Bible scholars as faculty. About 120 pastors were enrolled into each seminar. They met for one week of intensive training including 35 hours of class lectures and 10 hours in small group discussion Assignments were also required. These included per-course readings and reading reports, post-course practicum in preaching one sermon and a 12-page essay. Most students paid for their meals and lodging in the seminar and for their textbooks Donations were used to cover expenses for transportation for the professors & interpreters, translation cost for reading materials from English to Chinese, leasing of facilities to hold the seminars, and fees for grading student assignments.
