VOICE has conducted training programs and workshops on Situational Leadership, an adaptive leadership style, which encourages leaders to take stock of their team members, weigh the many variables in their workplace and choose the leadership style that best fits their goals and circumstances. This helps current and future leaders to adapt to the existing work environment and the needs of the organization. Leaders must be able to move from one leadership style to another to meet the changing needs of an organization and its employees. These workshops give insights into understanding when to change their management style and what leadership strategy fits each new paradigm.
