Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	Grants were provided to students and early career professionals who indicated in their email application that they did not have full financial support to attend the ISSRM conference. The only eligibility criterion was that they had to be a student or early professional at the time of the conference. All who applied who indicated they did not have full financial assistance for the conference were selected to receive the scholarship. Student paper awards are given annually. The best papers as determined by the award committee are awarded in three categories - PhD, Masters, and Undergraduate. SNR article awards are given annually to authors of the best papers as determined by the award committee.
