Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Environment and Science: Science is a crucial resource for evolving a sustainable future. The intricacy of global challenges calls for new methods and innovative outlooks within the scientific community. We advocate and aid these developments, focusing efforts on understanding and educating communities on the short and long term effects and risks of the San Onofre Power Plant and their plans for storage of nuclear waste.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Arts and Culture: Connections matter and the Samuel Lawrence Foundation Strives to connect communities to art and culture. We have sustained and amplified the work of several Southern California dance and ballet programs through our mini grants to deserving students. Our priority is to increase access to music and dance for families who otherwise would not have been exposed to the arts.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Education: Strengthening a sense of knowledge, skill and value is pertinent to any individual, regardless of age. We distinguish ourselves as a building block needed for advancing education of all sorts - whether it be bridging the gap between San Diego Unified School District and access to live classical music, advocating for improved education of climate change, or providing budding scientists the funds needed to continue their education.

Return Reference	Explanation
Other	Pt II, Lines 1-11: The Samuel Lawrence Foundation confirms organizational compliance prior to disbursement of funds to organizations through a vetting process of phone calls, online research, and Form 990 confirmation. Most of our grants are modest and under $1,000, and often we grant these funds to reputable organizations for a general education, research or arts program without restrictions on specific uses. Several groups that we contribute to are supported by Samuel Lawrence Foundation through a fiscal sponsorship agreement. In these cases, the organizations have a closer working relationship with the organization, and are bound by contract to a process of using funds. We monitor the funds through grant application review, regular phone calls and meetings, reporting to donors, receipts, budgets, and program visits.
