PART III Statement of Program Service

Demi's Animal Rescue was founded by Demi Merritt at the age of 14. We have grown to a 5 member, all volunteer board. We are a 501 (c)(3) non profit, no kill animal rescue that focuses on solving pet homelessness through adoption, spay and neuter, and pet retention.

We do not discriminate against any animal that is in need and open our door to all regardless of their breed, age, or special care required.

All animals receive any medical care that is needed, including vaccinations, testing, microchip, and spay and neuter.

Although our work is based around taking in homeless pets and finding permanent homes, we work with all sides of the issue. We do work to end breed specific legislation as well as offer free spay & neuter clinics and have a TNR program. We also help low income families feed their pets so they are able to keep them. We provide resources to families having issues with their pets to increase pet retention. We also involve the younger generation in pet rescue by accepting them as volunteers and educating them. We strive to see the day that pet homelessness is eliminated from the world.
