Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

3rd Person Inc exists to alleviate poverty in the Arab world by empowering nationals to restore broken relationships and systems in their communities.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 133993 including grants of $ 97730) (Revenue $)

3rd Person Inc provided aid and relief to over 700 refugees in Jordan, Lebanon, and Egypt. These efforts are designed to provide relief and aid in the short-term as employment and other income-producing opportunities are limited. In the long term, these efforts are geared towards development. 3rd Person is working with key national leaders to train, equip, and provide practical job skills that enable a person to find and acquire other income producing opportunities so that they can take care of themselves and their families. Our team in the Middle East regularly visits clients on a weekly or monthly basis, collecting information and bringing attention to other needs they have. In addition to providing the food, clothing, furniture, and other necessity items for clients and their families, 3rd Person also has volunteer medical staff that can help the client work through medical issues he or she has. 3rd Person provided medical care for 200 people in 2018, distributed thousands of dollars in food and household goods, and provided job training for 50 people. After initial assessments, the clients are invited to participate in ongoing job skills and counseling services provided by volunteer staff.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 97477 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

3rd Person Inc undertook several sports & health development projects through 2018. Under the direction of key national leaders and volunteer staff, the team engaged in training 175 clients (including youth) in impoverished communities in Leb., Egypt, and Jordan. These programs are designed to improve sports skills in the participants, teach them valuable life skills, and address health issues facing people in these communities. The participants meet up to 7 times per week for practices and tournaments and are given instruction time covering various topics like teamwork, selflessness, humility, dependability, etc. These programs have as stated long-term objectives to improve interpersonal relationship skills, decrease unhealthy choices, maintain education priorities, and help clients understand the root causes of poverty. 3rd Person saw an improved school retention rate when compared with others in the target community and decreased tobacco use among its clients.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 20322 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

3rd Person engaged in programming specifically designed for women. 60 women participated in regular weekly exercise classes as well as weekly self-image classes provided by national leaders and volunteers. These classes are designed to promote women's health and fitness as well as offer counseling services to clients who are victims of abuse and suffering from various levels of post-traumatic stress. In addition to the weekly classes, there is also offered intermittent special activities for these women including art-therapy classes and other soft-skill training classes. These programs are also designed to strengthen core groups in the community in order to address some of the root causes of poverty.

4d Other program services (Describe on Schedule O.)(Expenses $ 36791 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 20469)4e Total program service expenses 288583

Part V Supplemental Information

Provide the information required by Part I, line 2 (monitoring of funds); Part I, line 3, column (f) (accounting method; amounts of investments vs. expenditures per region); Part II, line 1 (accounting method); Part III (accounting method); and Part III, column (c) (estimated number of recipients), as applicable. Also complete this part to provide any additional information. See instructions.

We determine through site visits the worthiness of continued support of partner organizations operating and executing services that are consistent with our program services. We ask for detailed reports on activities and ask partner organizations to submit requests for assistance. Selection criteria depends on fund availability and strategic cohesion with stated mission and objectives. Visits are made to partner sites at least yearly by organizational representatives or officers. All assistance is accounted for on a cash basis and is considered a part of program services, and as a result is accounted for under program services rendered by the organization.

In Part III (2), the number 480 is an estimate based on the average number of people per family that were served. 3rd Person Inc engaged in providing relief and aid to approximately 80 families averaging 6 persons per family.

Part III - Statement of Program Service Accomplishments Line 4D

(Expenses - $ 14587) (Revenue - $ 7016)

3rd Person Inc engaged in a business development project designed to train and equip impoverished people with the skills, abilities, and resources to help them develop a sustainable source of income. Through the business development projects, 6 women were trained in sewing handbags that were sold in local markets as well as online through web sales. This project sustained a net loss in 2019

(Expenses - $ 14259)

3rd Person is involved in a project designed to help the Syrian refugee population in the country. One of the primary problems plaguing that community is their lack of access to education in the host country system. As a result, there is a significant lack of development for pre-school and kindergarten students. They are behind in the system and will remain behind without intervention.

3rd Person is working with national leaders and teachers to help them provide educational opportunities for these vulnerable children. There are 25 students engaged in the program and it has already proven to help the students be prepared for entry into the normal school system.

(Expenses - $ 7,945) (Revenue - $ 13,453)

3rd Person Inc has a volunteer team training/internship program that enables people to see, experience, and participate in the ongoing programs of 3rd Person Inc. Volunteers are given exposure to many cultural and social situations whereby they are encouraged to learn ways in which to apply principles of community development in their home communities. 3rd Person hosted 30 people on volunteer teams in 2019. The proceeds from the training fees cover expenses of the teams in country as well as help fund other projects in which 3rd Person is engaged.
