Name: International Rett Syndrome Foundation

Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Our commitment to finding treatments and a cure for Rett syndrome compels us to advance cutting edge research. Through our research programs we fund basic, translational and neuro-habilitation research grants throughout the world. We fund post-doctoral researchers, host science symposia to allow for discussions and networking of the world's Rett experts. We fund compound development directly through financial support of high throughput screening systems as well as financially supporting clinical trials. We work to expand access to high quality treatments and care in our support of the Natural History Study, and by sponsoring a national learning collaborative geared toward definition and spread of evidence-based care of patients with Rett syndrome.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

We empower families through our robust educational programming, consisting of free monthly webinars covering health care topics of interest to families, as well as 4 in-person regional education days. We provide 24/7/365 access to 2 staff members who are devoted to family engagement. We provide educational materials for families, caregivers, schools and therapists. We advocate to federal officials, keeping Rett syndrome on the list of funding priorities. We work with industry in the design of clinical trials, ensuring the clinical trial environment is family centered. We support a network of clinics in North America that is building guidelines for clinical care, making those guidelines available to families as they work with their child's care team, ensuring they are receiving appropriate care.

Part I, Line 2	Our Grant award process includes a letter of intent (LOI) submitted to the Foundation. LOIs are reviewed to determine whether the described project fits the intended research program and grant mechanisms. Applicants with eligible LOIs are asked to submit a full grant application and a peer-review meeting of scientific reviewers is convened to determine which projects have the highest scientific merit. Research grants are recommended to the foundation's Board of Directors who vote to approve. Researchers are then required to sign an acceptance agreement with the foundation and are required to submit two reports a year on progress. The Chief Science Officer and Manager of Grants & Research review the reports and corresponds with the researcher to ensure proper use of funds. The Foundation makes quarterly payments to all researchers, unless there is a special exception.
