Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The positive and practical influence of H.I.M. has continued to increase yearly as the ripples continue from the long term relationships and the investments made over the past 19 years. Although it is nearly impossible to measure the amount of training, discipleship, educating, encouragement, networking and ministering that takes place daily, H.I.M. continues to expand with staff and partners who directly influence thousands of people around the world. Over 1,762 orphans/children in over 65 schools and orphanages are directly helped, primarily in India, Pakistan and Nicaragua. New vehicles, scooters, motorcycles and bicycles have been provided to many, enabling them to reach, help and minister to thousands in very rural areas, who would otherwise be unreached. Over 180,000 people are helped in practical ways through education, supplies and weekly programs in more than 1,500 churches, home groups or mission centers. H.I.M. has also partnered with other organizations to meet the needs of those in undeveloped or underserved areas of the world or those needing disaster relief. For example, to meet the physical needs, many items such as medical, hygiene and dental supplies and hundreds of water filters have been distributed. H.I.M. also funded several building projects.

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule F, Part I, Line 2	All funds distributed overseas by HIM are strictly controlled and restricted to humanitarian, educational, and nonprofit purposes of the organization. Each partner and associate has been personally known, interviewed and vetted by our executive director or one of our other leaders. They are each committed to an accountability and written agreement form, which they sign along with local references in each area. They are often visited each year and are required to specifically list details and account for any financial help received.
