Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4 - use of endowment funds	Net assets with donor restrictions are used to differentiate resources, the use of which is restricted by donors or grantors to a specific time period or purpose, from resources on which no restrictions have been placed or that arise from the general operations of the company. Temporarily restricted gifts, grants, bequests, and investment income are recorded as additions to net assets with donor restrictions in the period received, unless the donor-imposed restrictions are met in the same reporting period, in which case the income is reported in net assets without donor restrictions. Net assets with donor restrictions include a wellness campaign and caring fund. Permanently restricted net assets consist of amounts held in perpetuity or for terms designated by donors. Permanently restricted net assets include building, resident care, educational and chaplaincy endowments.
